Program Management Assistant Engineer / Program Management Engineer
UNISTEEL

Job Description

Work on new products with respect to the customer's programs.
- Develop new processes if needed to meet customer requirements.
- Ensure timeline is meet and no delays to customers schedule.
- Interact and support customer needs for those products to be supplied to the customer.
- Communicate and be a catalyst with various internal teams to meet program and product requirements.
- Derive costing for new products.
- Analyze costs of new products to meet market prices and also ensure profitability for company.
- Work with suppliers (if any) on new products.
- Any other tasks/projects that may be assigned from time to time.

Apply Here